The Nature of God's Love

There is a story attributed to Henri Nouwen. The tale is that of an old man who would sit by the bank of a river under a big tree, where every morning he would pray and meditate. On one of these mornings he was finishing his prayer and he looked and there upon the river a helpless scorpion was floating by. As it floated over to the bank, the man tried to rescue the drowning scorpion, but it stung his hand instead. He tried several more times, and each time the old man was stung.

A stranger happened to be passing by and noticed what was happening. He yelled at the old man, "Are you crazy?! Only a fool would risk his own life for that worthless creature. You could kill yourself trying to save that ungrateful scorpion!"

The old man looked up at the stranger and responded assuredly, "Good stranger, just because it is the scorpion's nature to sting, doesn't change my nature to care and to save."

We could call this a modern parable. This story could have happened, and maybe has happened that very way. God reveals Himself in many different ways and in many different places, sometimes where we would least expect it. Jesus really meant it when He said: "I am with you always." (Mt 28:20) No matter in what place and situation we find ourselves, Jesus is with us.

I can only imagine what Jesus must feel when He looks at the state of the world today. War in Europe, accompanied by nuclear threats; one pandemic people try to sting Him, even if they refuse to be rescued from the dark floods of sin, God does not give up. It is His nature to care and to save.

That is what we learn from Jesus Who said: "Who has seen Me, has seen the Father." (Jn 14:9) Jesus allowed Himself to be stung, pierced, nailed to the cross for the same reason: It is His nature to care and to save. Those who will not be saved in the end, have said "No" to Jesus. All who end up in hell, go there by their own choosing. What a tragedy!

The coming Warning (illumination of conscience) and the six weeks after, a time without the devil's interference, is people's last chance to convert. Those who belong to Jesus are called to help those in need of conversion by talking with them, and praying for them. Write their names on a Green Scapular, too. Do whatever you can to help them make the right decision: to embrace God's offer and to say to Jesus the words of St. Thomas:

"My Lord, and my God" (Jn 20:28). It is His nature to care and to save, and He is calling us to help Him.

— Fr. John +

not yet over, and the next (monkeypox) on the horizon; abortion not yet fully abolished (Thanks be to God for the overturning of Roe v. Wade here in the U.S).

In all this, Jesus is with us, suffers with His people, and wants to save us. As long as we live in this fallen world with all its misery, we will never be able to fully understand the depth of God's love. Even if

How You Can Use Exorcism Salt

An Apostle I had met at a Healing Conferences I held in New York had recently purchased a home with a barn. She felt something was wrong, and didn't feel very comfortable. The previous owner had left a tremendous amount of his items, tools, furniture and much more on the property when he sold it to her.

When she moved in, she placed many items (hers and the previous owners) into the barn until she could sort through it all at a later time. While on the phone with her one day, I witnessed a demonic spirit running across the land and entering a building. When I told her where I saw the demon run into, she said it was her barn. I asked if she had stuff stored there, she said yes! I told her we needed to complete a House Cleansing to remove the demons and scheduled a date and time.

When I began to discern the items by asking Jesus if there was a demonic spirit attached to an item, I could see demons manifesting from it (95% of the previous owners items were possessed). One large piece of furniture was an antique armoire (a little ghostly boy was hiding in it and I have included that story, refer to: The Boy Trapped In The Armoire).

My friend had other friends helping her too, they moved these items into a pile outside the barn including the armoire. The pile of stuff became fairly large, she knew it would take a junk hauling company to remove all the demonized items at a later time.

Nearing the end of the day, the Lord placed in my heart the need to contain the demons so they wouldn't wander on her property attacking her. I asked if she had exorcism salt, she did. Her friend walked around the pile with exorcism salt, making a circle around the pile of items and we prayed together, asking Jesus to command the demons to remain within the circle of exorcism salt.

There was an immediate peace on the property, and they all witnessed Holy Angles in the sky above her land. They also witnessed a 60 foot Guarding Angel appear (she had been asking the Lord to see the Guarding Angel on her property after she had placed the Home Protection Kit in the four corners of her land previously.

The holy Angels were there to ensure my friend was protected through the grace of Jesus Christ and because she was protected by the Sacramental's from the Home Protection Kit. After the haulers removed all items, the land felt very peaceful and continues to be so now. —Anna Marie

Harry Potter Items Are Cursed, So Is Your Home

If you have any Harry Potter items in your home, you have DEMONS in your home! Every Harry Potter item has a demonic spirit attached to it. If you have five Harry Potter items, you have five demons. If you have 50 Harry Potter items in your home, you have 50 items in your home.

Your home will have fighting, arguing, anger, divorce and more. If you want your home to have peace, your family, joy and the love to reign in your home; then get rid of every Harry Potter item. Your home will become brighter, smell nicer and the peace of the Lord will restore love in your home.

Testimonial On Harry Potter Demons Attacking

"I was in the home of someone close to me that was a Harry Potter fan.

When they moved, I carried a VERY heavy box which turned out to hold the Harry Potter books.

Their 10 year old son had bobble-head Harry Potter characters in his bedroom, and there were Lago's of Harry Potter assembled on shelves.

They have Harry Potter themed parties at Halloween.

I did advise them that Harry Potter and all associated paraphernalia was cursed, but they didn't believe me.

While in that home, I was pushed down a flight of five steps, but caught myself on the stair rail.

Next, I was pushed while climbing UP the steps in rubber soled shoes. My hands were full and I ended up falling on an upper landing and spilled the items.

I no longer go to their home."

—An Apostle

(Note from Anna Marie: I have found demonized items in many homes throughout the years. One specific key indicator of something being possessed is when the item becomes very heavy, as in this story of moving a box full of Harry Potter demons.)

Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul

St. Jeanne-Antide Thouret

Also known as Joan Antide Thouret and Jane Antide, was born November 27, 1764 and died on August 24, 1826. She was born in Sancey, in the Franche-Comté region of France. She was the fifth child of a poor family. She was baptized the day she was born and was named after her godmother.

Her mother died when she was sixteen. Her aunt disagreed with her father to allow Jeanne to take care of her family. When she was 22 years old, Jeanne entered the Daughters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul to serve the poor and to work in hospitals. She worked in Langres and then in Paris. While a postulant, she met St. Vincent de Paul and considered him a father-daughter relationship that lasted her entire life.

On August 15, 1797, she founded a school for poor girls in Besançon. During the Franch Revolution, while many religious and priests were killed, she was ordered to return to her family's home, but refused and was badly beaten when she tried to escape the authorities.

She returned to Sancy in 1797, where she founded a small school for girls and worked with the sick until she had to flee to Switzerland, German, and then back to Switzerland in 1799, where she opened a school, hospital and a congregation called the Institute of the Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul, which expanded into France and Italy.

On September 23, 1802, she began working with prisoners in Bellevaux, teaching, providing food and organizing the prisoners. In 1807, her community was officially named "Sisters of Charity of Besançon". On May 8, 1810, she and some sisters travelled to Savoy, Thonon and Naples, where she cared for "Incurables" at a hospital.

Pope Pius VII approved their community, which he named "Sisters of Charity under the protection of St. Vincen de Paul", on July 23, 1819. Thouret died of natural causes in Naples on August 24, 1826. She was beatified on May 23, 1926 and canonized on January 14, 1934 by Pope Pius XI. Her feast day is May 23rd. Her statue appears among the 39 founders of religious orders at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City.

As of 2020, there were 4,000 sisters, spread over 27 countries, in the Sisters of Charity community who provide a large variety of services for the poor. --Taken From Wikipedia

What If Your Bread Molds?

When Jesus asks Apostles to put out a piece of bread and bottle of water so He can come and bless it, do so every time Jesus says He is coming!

Yet Apostles contact us asking why did their bread mold if Jesus blessed the bread. My answer, He didn't bless your bread so throw it in the trash!

The other question is, "Why did my bread mold?" I answer, either you have an active ghost living in your home or you have demonic items in your home. Demonic items such as:

Harry Potter, Disney, and other items will cause your bread to mold.

Another reason causing your bread to mold is the plastic bag you're placed your bread in, it wasn't manufactured correctly. This represents a small percentage of molded bread incidents.

If you want to find out WHY your bread keeps molding, then ask Jesus in Adoration. Ask Jesus what is in your home that is causing your bread to mold. You need to ask the Lord yourself, Jesus will answer you!

If your bread continues to mold, you can take a piece of bread and place it on a plate on your kitchen counter. It will dry out, then place it in a plastic bag and place it on your Home Altar so when Jesus comes, He can bless it.

I encourage all Apostles to invite Jesus to bless their bread now, so they don't starve during the famine (it's already here). Don't wait, immediately place a piece of bread on your Home Altar and invite Jesus to bless their bread now! Remember, "Ask and you shall receive". —Anna Marie

Women, Do You Wear A Chapel Veil?

About twenty years ago, I began making "Chapel Veils" after Mother Mary showed me a vision on how to make it. I witnessed a sewing machine sewing up a piece of cloth that was closed at both ends.

Recently, I began making them again. I believe our Lady wills that women wear a Chapel Veil. Although they are not available to order from our Bookstore, they will be soon.

I looked up some holy Scripture on this topic. You can decide for yourself it is important that you cover your head during Mass or not. We read in 1 Corinthians 11, the reasons why St. Paul wrote to the people.

1 Corinth 11:5-6: "But every woman praying or prophesying with her head not covered, disgraceth her head: for it is all one as if she were shaven. For if a woman be not covered, let her be shorn. But if it be a shame to a woman to be shorn or made bald, let her cover her head."

It is better to cover your head, than to go bald. Due to the aging process, women may loose their hair, but if you wear a veil, no one will know. I love wearing a Church veil, so it might be something you invest in until we are called into a refuge. While in a refuge, women will probably all wear one. —Anna Marie

Back To Nature—A Guide For Using Herbs For Basic Medicine

Dear fellow Apostles, Our Lord said through more than one visionary that His people in the not too distant future will have to go to refuges, in order to survive. The following information may be helpful at a time when not everything will be readily available.

I used to be nurse on a cardiac floor in a wonderful hospital, but quit my job because I did not want to take the flu shot, and certainly not the COVID injection(s). Now, with my medical background I feel called to prepare for the times when people like us are not able any more to get out and buy things or visit the doctor's office or even the hospital.

So, what would one need for a cough, an upset stomach, an accidental cut with the knife, a sprained ankle, insect bites, a poison ivy rash...? The Lord said He would heal health problems, and I believe He will indeed heal the major issues like a heart condition or Diabetes. But it is very possible that He leaves it for us to handle the "small stuff". So, I prepare. And if you want to prepare as well, here is what I have learned so far and what you could do as well:

Get everything you can from the Pharmacy: band-aides, bandages, disinfectant, Neosporin, Vaseline, braces (for hand, ankle or knee), OTC pain medication, stool softeners, etc. Study and inform yourself about natural healing methods like breathing techniques, relaxing body postures, when to use a warm pack and when to use an ice pack. Learn about herbs and start an herb garden (see List #1), in order to grow natural remedies for medicine, but also for seasoning food or making lotions, salves, or even tooth paste. If you don't have a big garden, you can plant in pots.

Some more things to buy/stock up on:

basic oils like coconut oil, olive oil, and/ or Almond oil, raw organic honey, some essential oils (see List #2) and bees wax; and also—if you don't have it: a kitchen scale, measuring cups, a hand mixer and a double boiler (or a small pot or Pyrex cut that can be put into a bigger pot—making your own double boiler). And: Start collecting empty small jars and bottles. Making your own salves and syrups is a lot of fun and does not take much time. The more I learn and discover, the more excited I get about the abundance that God gave us in nature. It really is amazing, how many herbs grow in nature, so you need to buy only a few. As long as we have access to the internet, I highly recommend using Google and Pinterest to research, study and learn. I also will be available for questions and comments through the GS website. So here is a list of important herbs you might need:

List 1: Growing in the Wild

Yarrow (chew raw root as pain relief for tooth, use leaves in tea for anxiety—maybe together with holy Basil—or salves for swelling, bruises, wound healing)

Plantain (leaves for wound healing, insect bites)

Violet (fresh or dried leaves raw in salad, or boiled in tea, strengthens immune system, acts as blood cleanser and mild laxative)

Dandelion (the entire plant is edible, a mild diuretic, liver protective, a tea from the leaves and flowers or from the roots treat a urinary tract infection, or can be taken to aid digestion, the sap or "milk" from the stem treats corns, warts and wounds)

Mint(s) (wild or cultivated spearmint, apple mint, peppermint tea for upset stomach, inhale steam for respiratory issues, use in mouthwashes for clean breath)

Chickweed (besides being tasty in a salad, a tea from leaves, stems, and flowers to great to treat arthritis: drink it and/or soak the affected joint in it)

Golden Rod (treats UTI and kidney disease with tea from leaves and flowers, stops bleeding on wounds, anti fungal, anti-inflammatory, supports heart function)

Mullein (leaves and flowers are for tea to treat bronchitis, asthma and other respiratory problems, it loosens phlegm, helps to breathe easier, steam from tea can be inhaled as well).

Plants or seeds to buy

Holy Basil (stress relief and insomnia)

Calendula (flowers in salve for skin diseases, wound healing, herpes / cold sores)

Chamomile (same as Calendula, plus make tea from flower heads for upset stomach, as an eyewash, or gargle for sore throat)

Echinacea (tea from leaves or roots for flu and cold symptoms, stimulates immune system, as a poultice for insect, spider and snake bite—it neutralizes the poison and relieves pain)

Thyme (powerful antibiotic—use in tea or mash the leaves and put on wounds, mouthwash for dental cavities)

Rosemary (stimulates digestion, improves memory, improves circulation, helps with headaches)

Ginger (cut root into thin slices or pieces, boil for tea against nausea)

Basic Salve Recipe For Wounds

According to your needs you can mix into the oil the appropriate herbs, dried or fresh. If fresh, the shelf life is not longer that 1-2 weeks (in the refrigerator!). If you infuse dried herbs into the oil first (which takes 4-6 weeks) then your salve can last up to one year in a cool dark place (it does not have to be refrigerated).

Skin Salve for Wound Healing

- ◆ 2 oz carrier oil (coconut oil, olive oil, sweet almond oil)
- ◆ 2 oz of dried herb(s) (calendula flowers and/or chamomile flowers and/or plantain leaves)
- ◆ 0.5 oz of bees' wax (you might need even less with coconut oil as it is already firmer than the other oils)
- ◆ 5 drops of Geranium essential oil or Peppermint essential oil (both have antibacterial & anti-inflammatory properties)

Instructions: Warm the oil in a double boiler to lukewarm. Mix herbs with oil and fill into a very clean bottle or jar. Let infuse over 4-6 weeks in a dark cool place, shaking the jar gently every two to three days. After 6 weeks strain the oil through a fine sieve and discard the solid pieces. Melt the beeswax in a double boiler. Add the herb-infused oil while stirring. Turn heat off and mix the essential oil in. Fill into a jar and let cool until set (refrigerate). Then store until you need it. See how easy this is?

Finally a little not regarding essential oils. Anyone who has attended a "Spiritual Warfare" conference with Anna Marie (or a priest or someone else who knows about those things) knows that our world is infested with demons and cursed items. That very much applies also to essential oils. Witches and Satanists, New Age followers, Buddhists and other false gods-worshippers use essential oils for their rituals. Certain companies sell only cursed items (e.g. "Plant Therapy" and "Edens Garden" are very bad companies-don't get fooled by the pretty bottles!) Thus it is very important to pray for discernment when you buy (essential) oils and herbs.

Here are four companies whose oils have been discerned by Anna Marie and are safe to buy from:

- ◆ Paradise Springs
- ◆ Nexus Botanics
- ◆ Tisserand
- ◆ NOW Solutions (for carrier oils like Sweet Almond Oil)

The Patron Saint for gardening, especially medicinal plants is Saint Fiacre, an Irish Monk from the 7th century. His feast is August 30.

Do You Have Very Old Mirrors?

While conducting a House Cleansing in the past, I have found demonized mirrors in homes. I can recall helping a very holy and sweet Catholic lady in Pennsylvania who had a demonized mirror in her home.

When I saw the demonic face coming out of the mirror, I told her. I let her know that it was critical that she remove the mirror and throw it away in the trash. As she attempted to remove it, it became so heavy that she had an impossible mission to move it out. She had to drag it from her home, and take it to her trash bin. It gained about 100 pounds.

When we were in her bedroom, I witness two people dancing in the middle of the room, it was from the Disney characters: Beauty and the Beast. I let her know right away that I saw them in her bedroom. As she was checking to see what it could be, she found a small Beauty and the Beast tea cup from Disney. She was shocked, because she never told me she had it in her possession.

All Disney items are possessed. If you research what the first Disney movie ever made was, Fantasia will appear. Fantasia was made by Disney in 1940. Mickey Mouse is dressed as a witch with a black pointy hat and a magic wand in his hand!

For the sake of your family peace, get rid of demonized items.

The Boy Trapped In The Armoire

I was asked by an Apostle who attended the Healing Conference I presented in New York, to help her clear her home and land of demonized items. While working in her barn, we came to an antique armoire that I felt was demonized.

I asked my friend if she could open the doors of the armoire, she did. When she opened the doors, I saw a huge demons inside and a little boy about 4 years old who was curled up on the bottom of the armoire. The little boy didn't talk to me, he looked very afraid. I knew the demon was keeping this little boy captive in that armoire.

I told my friend that all of us would need to gather together that day with her friends and complete a Ghost Healing to help this little boy leave the armoire and get away from the demon.

At the end of the day (after moving the armoire and everything demonized into the pile outside the barn), we gathered and began. We asked Jesus to send us His Nine Choirs of Angels to help us. We needed the Angels to keep the demons right where they were in the pile of debris. We also asked Jesus to send His holy Light of Heaven down and take this little boy home to meet his parents.

I understood the little boy was being raised by a man (I don't believe this man was his father), who had placed the boy in the armoire and he died, probably of starvation. We asked the little boy to leave the armoire, and that he could sit with my friend and her dear friends as we prayed.

The Lord indicated to my friends that the little boy was sitting next to them and when the boy saw the Heavenly Light, we went into it. He left and we rejoiced! I no longer saw the child there, and the Holy Angels were seen and present. Praise YOU Jesus!

Placing Yourself, Everyone Into The Chalice

Jesus placed it into my heart many years ago, to begin placing my Blood Line Ancestors into the Chalice before Consecration. I have done so at every Mass I attend now, and have realized many Ancestral curses have been broken. This is the quickest way you can break the Ancestral curses in your family too.

All you need to do is ask Father God to please break and heal any Ancestral curses that your blood line relatives committed during their life and died unrepentant. When our Heavenly Father blesses and changes the wine into the Precious Blood of His Son Jesus, curses will be forgiven and healed.

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ heals all sins, all curses, all demonic bondage! Placing your father's lineage and your mother's lineage into the Chalice before the Priest says the Consecration Prayers, it will heal you and your children, grandchildren.

Exodus 20:3-6, Father God states: "Thou shalt not have strange gods before me. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them: I am the Lord thy God, mighty, jealous, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me: and shewing mercy unto thousands to them that love me, and keep my commandments."

If your ancestors sinned against the Lord, and died unrepentant; the demons are passed down 3 or 4 generations.

Video Games Can Possess Your Child

If you have not played video games with your child lately, you would be shocked! Video games are now being created by wicked occultists who want to possess your children with demons, and it is happening.

Video games are being designed with characters who are demons, both men and women characters. The danger for your child is that the women characters are inviting your child's screen character to have sexual relations. If your child falls into this trap, these demons can continue to attack your child and rape him/her at night. How would your 17 year old son tell you he is being raped by a demonic spirit who appears like a female character from a video game?

I recall a story a young man told me once. He had just been playing Warcraft and had to use the bathroom, so he pulled out the cartridge out of his game system. When he returned, the Warcraft cartridge was back into his system and was playing on its own. I realized then, that these video games are possessed! I share with parents that anything with the name, "Craft" is possessed and they should get rid of it.

If you are having troubles with your teenage children, try to find out what video games they are playing and then research it. Before throwing out these video games (kids now play these games online), research them. Not all video games are possessed, but you can bet most of them are!

Help your children recognize that the devil comes in many different disguises and in order for your child not to be possessed, he/she needs to aware that these demons will never leave them unless they go to Sacramental Confession. As a parent, you need to also go to Sacramental Confession and confess that you were ignorant that these video games were possessed. Then pray hard that you can wake up your child up from this evil. —Anna Marie

Destroying Human Sacrifice Curses

Recently the Lord taught me how to destroy curses made through human sacrifices. This is a terrifying subject. We all have heard about human sacrifices taking place around the world. We know that humans, mainly babies and little children are kidnapped and used as a human sacrifice by diabolical wicked people, like satan worshippers.

Jesus wills all good practicing Catholics to break curses that were made with the innocent blood of little children and to Baptize these little children spiritually (in case they were never Baptized), with the Holy Blood of Jesus Christ. This is the process I use while attending Holy Mass.

I place all children (babies and little kids) into the Chalice before Consecration, before the wine turns into the Precious Blood of Jesus. I ask Father God to allow His Son's Precious Blood to pour over and cover these murdered children that are spiritually placed in the Chalice and to break and destroy any curse that their murder was used for. I additionally ask our Heavenly Father to Baptize these little with His Son's Divine Blood! It is up to Almighty God to do as He wills, but I know that if we "Ask" we will receive.

I have noticed many evil people being arrested, secrets are being revealed and more. Jesus' Precious Blood brings all evil into the light so that through His Precious Blood, evil is exposed and justice is able to stop these murderous demonic wicked people. I need your help! If we all began placing these children who were used as a human sacrifice into the Chalice, then the Blood of Jesus will destroy this evil. God bless you and pay attention to world events to see what your efforts have revealed and stopped! —Anna Marie

Your Dog Is Your Best Friend

During refuging, our dogs will be protecting us so it is important to ensure they are in good health.

There are specific foods we can never feed them which include:

Avacados, bones from fish, poultry or other meat sources, cat food, chocolate, coffee, tea and other caffeine drinks, citrus oil extracts, fat trimmings, fish (raw, canned or cooked), grapes, raisins and currants, hops, human supplements containing iron, macadamia nuts, marijuana, milk and other daily products, moldy or spoiled food, mushrooms, onions, garlic, persimmons, pits from peaches and plums, raw eggs, raw meat, rhubarb leaves, salt, string, sugary foods, table scraps (in large amounts), tobacco, yeast dough, xylitol and alcohol. These items can kill your dog and cause deadly sicknesses. If it is bad for your dog, it is probably bad for your cats too.

Love your dogs, they can tell when a demon or trafficking witch comes to attack you or your family members. Be mindful of their behavior and they will tip you off when evil comes to terrorize you!

Make Canned Butter

You can make your own shelf stable canned butter that will last for up to five years. Here is what you will need:

1. Sticks of Butter (8 sticks) equals 2 lbs.
2. Mason Jars & Lids
3. Paper Towels & Vinegar

Take your eight sticks of butter and bring them to a boil on your stove, stirring frequently. When your butter boils, you can remove them from the heat and pour the butter into a liquid pouring pitcher that has a spout so you can pour butter into the Mason Jars.

At the same time, you need to place your Mason Jars into the microwave to heat them up for two minutes. The jars must be heated in order to create a seal with the lids. Remove the lids first, the lids cannot go into the microwave.

When you pull empty jars from the microwave, stir your butter first, pour butter into the jars. Immediately wipe away spilled butter on the jars with paper towels and vinegar. Place lids on filled jars and seal it firmly. Set it aside. Continue to stir the butter in your container before pouring more butter into another heated jar. Continue the process until you have used all your butter.

When all butter is used and jars are cooled down, give them a shake to make certain the butter remains mixed up. You can place them in your refrigerator 2 to 5 minutes. Next, check on them and your butter should be set. If the butter is not set yet, you can shake and place in the refrigerator again for a few minutes. This butter can sit on your counter or cupboard for years.

Hurricane Preparedness

Hurricane Season is from June 1 thru Nov 30

Here are important steps you should take if you live in a Hurricane area.

1. Make an evacuation plan. Find activated evacuation routes.
2. Sign-up for Emergency Alerts. Make sure your device is enabled to receive Wireless Emergency Alerts (WEAs).
3. Prepare an Emergency Supply
