2005 PRAISE REPORTS

1. PRAISE REPORT: Cynthia also writes: My grandson that was 2.2 pounds is now 17 pounds and he may only be on oxygen for another month! After about 4 weeks we're going to try night-times only. His helmet may come off in 3 months! Talk about miracles and the answer of prayers! I took him to church Sunday so that Father could bless him when we received and prayed that he would soon be released permanently to us. We can only see him every-other weekend at this time. Also, another miracle, I haven't been able to stop crying. My son was on the brink of doing 5 ½ to 10 years prison for a "Gay Hate Crime" he never committed! The verdict was NOT GUILTY on the 28th. I will pray for this guy...you could tell something is wrong with him - it came out in the trial that HE was the one that attacked Adrian! He told the jury he smoked marijuana that morning and was found by the police to have it in his possession!! My son was found clean AND STILL the prosecuting attorney wanted him to do time! Adrian Jr & Sr sure have had a hard time, but thanks to Our Lord's grace they were spared. My son Adrian lost his job and car and now is trying to find a job/car so that he can get the baby. I tell you, I don't know what people do without the Lord in their lives. THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR YOUR PRAYERS - your sister, Cynthia

5. PRAISE REPORT: Berta requested prayer for Mari, here is Berta's report: A Special Thank-You for Mari: I want to thank the Lord for a very special prayer request I had about 3-4 months ago. I explained that I had a friend who had had a baby girl 4 mo. premature, she only weight 1 lb. 6 oz's and she was very critical. My friend called asking for prayers and so I called all the praying people I know in this area, I also got on the internet to make this request, we were desperate and wanted as many prayers to save this one baby girl (Mari Carmen). I never heard from them again until yesterday. I saw my friend at a wedding I was at, and when she saw us she rushed to say hi, and I didn't have the words to ask her what had happened with her baby, I was expecting for her to say she was in heaven with Jesus. Instead she said, she's doing great, she made it and almost weighs 5 lbs., but she is still at the hospital until she's ready to come out. We were so happy for her, it just made our whole day. I still feel very happy today, and wanted to thank everyone who helped with their prayers. I know many people like us have a long list of people to pray for, but when you hear results like these, it's all worth it in the long run. Mari Carmen is a very blessed little girl, and only the Lord knows what kind of plans he has for her. Please keep her in your prayers, so the Lord will allow her to come home with her parents. THANK-YOU JESUS AND MOTHER MARY!!!"

Thank you for all who prayed over these many days. Today (7/20/2005), I signed a contract for a Chemistry teacher position with a large city school. The pay is much better than my previous college employer, the hours are less, the benefits are better, and finally, the commute to work is about half the amount of time from my previous college employer. The best complement I got today was from a staff member at Human Resources; "You are valuable, it is very hard to get qualified science teachers, and you are very qualified to teach here. We appreciate you coming here". This was so different from the attitude of previous academic employers, including my most recent college employer. I must express thanks to Father God, Our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit as well as all of the intercession by the saints and Internet friends across the world. I must thank all of you for your prayers, offering of Masses, rosaries, and your kind words of support and wisdom. Thank you again and may God richly bless each and every one of you."

Dear Maureen, There is a message to you from Anna Marie regarding your prayer request. The Lord spoke with her and asked that this message be shared: "My dear little one, why do you fear so much? Am I not always with you? Taking care of you? Do you know I love you? Why do you fear so much? I have led you by the hand always. I have dried your tears and healed your sorrows, why do you not trust in me now? Be in peace, I am leading you, guiding you onto the (an Angel appeared) path that my Father has planned for you from the beginning of time. I will never desert you, you are mine. Now trust in me, trust in my love for you, for my love is greater than your fears. I will remain with you until all is said, my Angels are beside you now, trying to bring you peace. Allow my Mother's love to penetrate your troubled heart, for she too loves you! I will bless you with my mercy. Continue your prayers for others, as you pray for them, you will be freed from any distress and concern over the fate of your employer. I am in control and will guide you until you return home to me, your Savior, your Jesus of the most Blessed Sacrament." I know that the message I was given to pass to you is very powerful! Have peace now, Jesus is in control. May of Bless Each of you are I know our awesome God meant it more than just for me but wanted to reassure me in my fears!
