On How To Defend Yourself From Breast Cancer Curses

There can not be anything worse than hearing from your doctor that you have breast cancer. We all have known someone who has suffered from it, the debilitating medications and treatments. Although as Catholics, we accept suffering as Purgatory on earth, saving souls from damnation and helping the Holy Souls in Purgatory; we also believe that curses need to be fought spiritually to protect against cancer in any form. We want to offer you a few tips on what you can do to assist in this spiritual battle, undoubtedly caused by someone's curses.

You need to recognize when someone is cursing you. If you feel a strange piercing feeling in your breasts, you can blame someone using Voodoo against you. Practitioner's of Voodoo use needles to stab a mock doll, so if you experience any sensation of a needle piercing your breasts, you can immediately write on a blessed Green Scapular: "Person cursing my breasts now". Then you can baptize that person with holy water by saying: "I baptize the person cursing me now, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen." When you baptize and write the wicked person on a blessed Green Scapular, Mother Mary will do everything possible to save that person from damnation, remember our motto: "To Jesus, Through Mary".

If you should feel a strange vibration on your breasts, like sound waves penetrating your skin; you can assume it is from a witchcraft spell. For both cases, we recommend baptism, writing his/her name on a blessed Green Scapular, praying for him/her and most importantly, we recommend that you sew two Miraculous Medals in your brassiere, one in each cup. Sew them so that when you wash your bra, they do not fall off. Always leave these Miraculous Medals in your brassier (if you like to travel on planes, you can consider wearing one brassier without medals sewn in).

After doing the above, if you still feel needles or waving vibrations penetrating your skin, you can use your Holy Rosary to place it in the spot that is being affected. Women can always hide their blessed Rosary in their brassier, it is not disrespectful in any way, since we are fighting wicked, diabolical possessed people who hate prayerful women.

If the Rosary does not stop the attack, use the most powerful weapon in the arsenal of spiritual tools to fight evil; the Holy Bible. You can begin praying the Holy Rosary for the person cursing you and place your Holy Bible on your chest when you feel a grave attack. On many occasions, Anna Marie has used her Holy Bible to fight off wicked witches or Voodoo practitioners while praying for them with her Holy Rosary. The Word Incarnate, Jesus, who is the Living Bible, will defend you from this evil. Try it, it works!!!

Men can also sew a Miraculous Medal into their underwear for protection against prostate cancer! Men are also being cursed in this manner, and we need to share this info with them.

We welcome anyone who would like to offer their personal testimony in private (your name will never be shared at anytime) by mail or email.
