Psalm 129, De Profundis

A Prayer of a Sinner, Trusting in the Mercies of God
The Sixth Penitential Psalm

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice. Let Thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication. If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities: Lord, who shall stand it. For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness: and by reason of Thy Law, I have waited for Thee, O Lord. My soul hath relied on His word: my soul hath hoped in the Lord. From the morning watch even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord. Because with the Lord there is mercy: and with Him plentiful redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

(The faithful who devoutly recite the 129th Psalm, De Profundis or who say the Our Father, Hail Mary and vesicle Eternal Rest in supplication for the faithful departed, may gain: An indulgence of 3 years; and indulgence of 5 years ever day in November; A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this pious practice is repeated daily for a month. Apostolic Brief, Aug. 11, 1736; S. P. Ap., May 29, 1933 and Nov. 20, 1940).

Psalm 50, Miserere

The repentance and confession of David after his sin.
The Fourth Penitential Psalm

Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy great mercy. And according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my iniquity. Wash me yet more from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me. To Thee only have I sinned, and have done evil before Thee: that Thou mayst be justified in Thy words, and mayst overcome when Thou art judged.

For behold, I was conceived in iniquities: and in sins did my mother conceive me. For behold, Thou has loved truth: the uncertain and hidden things of Thy wisdom Thou has made manifest to me. Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow. To my hearing Thou shalt give joy and gladness: and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice.

Turn away Thy face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create a clean heart in me, O God; and renew a right spirit within my bowels. Cast me not away from Thy face; and not Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation and strengthen me with a perfect spirit. I will teach the unjust Thy ways: and the wicked shall be converted to Thee. Deliver me from blood, O God, Thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall extol Thy justice. O Lord, Thou wilt open my lips: and my mouth shall declare Thy praise. For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: with burnt offerings Thou wilt not be delighted. A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: a contrite and humbled heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise. Deal favorably, O Lord, in Thy good will with Sion; that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up. Then shalt Thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and whole burnt offerings: then shall Thy lay calves upon Thy altar.

(A partial indulgence of 3 years if recited for the souls detained in purgatory and a Plenary Indulgence once a month, on the usual conditions for the daily recitation of the same. (S. P. Ap., March 9, 1934)).
